Fred M. Miller, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I have been President of Resort Aviation Services, Inc., since its creation a number of years ago. As such I have direct knowledge of all matters recited hereafter.

No. of Copies rec'd 015
 List ABOVE

Pursuant to Title 47 CFR Section 1.229, Resort Aviation Services, Inc. moves to enlarge the issues to allow submission of evidence demonstrating that Resort Aviation Services, Inc. had an unusually good record during the prior license term. In anticipation of our application to renew our Unicom license, we prepared forms captioned "Unicom Survey" and commencing in July of 2001 placed these at the desk in our office at the Coeur d'Alene Airport.

Our employees were asked to direct the attention of incoming pilots to the form while advising that completion was purely voluntary. During the time period between July 23, 2001 and January 3, 2002, 75 forms were completed, each by a different pilot.

The original 75 forms were submitted and are on file in this proceeding attached to the Second Affidavit of Kathleen Garren, Operations Manager for Resort Aviation Services, Inc., dated January 9, 2002. These constitute all of the Unicom Survey forms. None has been omitted. The handwriting is of the individual signing. All were favorable.

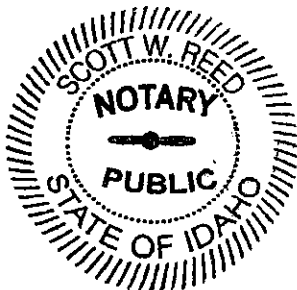

These would have been submitted with our renewal application on October 20, 2001, but we were advised at that time that only the required application form should be used.

These individual pilot evaluations of our Unicom over a six month period totally support our motion to allow evidence showing Resort Aviation Services, Inc. had an unusually good record.

Within the first week of the hiring date of personnel who are to operate the Unicom System, Resort Aviation Services, Inc. requires that each such employee receive complete Unicom training. Attached hereto are true and correct copies of Unicom Certificates of Training for each of our employees who has operated the Unicom System signed by a certified and licensed flight instructor. Every new front desk personnel undergoes two weeks on the job training with a supervisor before being permitted to be a solo operator of the Unicom.
